Now that the Home Energy Rating System (HERS) index is part of the MLS, it's important to understand what it means to the home market. Energy efficiency, energy codes and HERS are key components of new and existing high performance homes.

In collaboration with Omaha Area Board of REALTORS® (OABR) and American Energy Advisors, OPPD is offering this Nebraska Real Estate Commission accredited class: "The Building Science Behind High Performance Homes – HERS #0630"

Class Overview:

- Basic Building Science – Understanding a home as a system
- History and future of energy building codes
- What is the Home Energy Rating System (HERS) Index
- What is a High Performance Home
- How to sell High Performance Homes

Class Schedule:

When: Thursday, Oct. 22, 8 a.m. to noon

Where: Omaha Area Board of Realtors – 11830 Nicholas St., Omaha

Who: Garry Ruliffson, OPPD, and Jesse Krivolavek, American Energy Advisors
