

Reconnect power safely after a flood

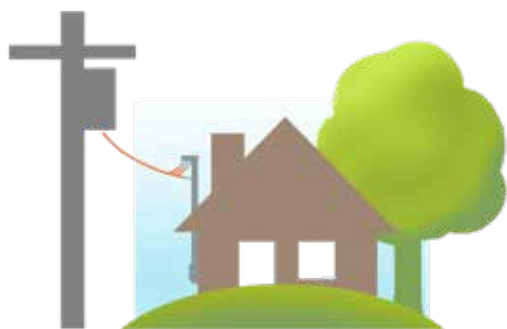

When an area is flooded, your power may be disrupted or disconnected.

Prior to reconnecting, you must contact your local inspection and permitting agency. In some cases, you may need an electrician to complete repairs.

Once OPPD is allowed access to the flooded area, we will repair damage to our electrical system.

Once OPPD has received an approved permit from your permitting agency and repaired our system, power will be restored.

Inspection and Permitting Agencies

City/Municipality

Arlington	402-426-6872
Bellevue	402-293-3014
Bennington	402-444-7189
Blair	402-426-4191
Elkhorn	402-444-5358
Fort Calhoun	402-426-6872
Gretna	402-597-2066
La Vista	402-332-5044
Omaha	402-444-5358
Papillion	402-597-2072
Ralston	402-331-6677 ext#1310
Springfield	402-253-2204
Valley	402-444-7189
Washington	402-426-6872
Waterloo	402-444-7189

County

Douglas County	402-444-7189
Sarpy County	sarpy.com
Washington County	402-426-6872
Burt County	402-649-7730
Colfax County	402-499-5841
Dodge County	402-499-5841
Saunders County	402-499-5841
Cass County	402-499-5842
Otoe County	402-360-0655
Johnson County	402-360-0655
Nemaha County	402-360-0655
Richardson County	402-360-0655

your energy partner[®]

OPPD

Omaha Public Power District

oppd.com